

The perfect setting for productive meetings

In a convenient location near suburban expressways, the Canisius Amherst Conference Center offers an ideal full-service venue for off-site meetings, training and conferences. Our executive-caliber spaces and comfortable furnishings, quiet, welcoming atmosphere and attentive customer service combine to assure a professional and productive working environment.

When you arrive, we'll have everything set up according to your specifications. Catering is available for meals or receptions. Our accommodating staff will be on hand to greet your colleagues or guests and can provide such administrative support as copying and faxing.
